

Backroads to Heaven (Chord Chart)

Written by: Hayward Franks (as performed by Lloyd Knight)

G D
I ain't in no hurry, I've got ten miles to worry
Em C G
About which way I'll turn at the light
G D
If I take the road home where I know I belong
Em C G
I'll catch hell for the rest of the night
Am C
But in the other direction there's love and affection
G D
The kind I ain't had for so long
Em D G C
Ya know the backroads to heaven lead straight to your door
Am D G
And the highway to hell takes me home

G D
I know where I should go and the Lord knows I would go
Em C G
'Cause he's seen what she puts me through
G D
So I know I'm forgiven even though I'll be sinning
Em C G
'Cause he hung that halo on you
Am C
I can't help what I feel when I turn this old wheel
G D G
To the right even though I'll be wrong
Em D G C
'Cause the backroads to heaven lead straight to your door
Am D G
And the highway to hell takes me home

C D
All it would take is one foot on the brake
G C
To go home and start losing my mind
C D
But I keep hesitating 'cause I know what lies waiting
Em D
For me when I'm there by your side

G D
Some folks don't think we have guardian angels
Em C G
Well, I'm here to tell 'em their wrong
Em D G C
'Cause the backroads to heaven lead straight to your door
Am D G
And the highway to hell takes me home

TAG:

Em D G C
Oh, the backroads to heaven lead straight to your door
